

Abdul-Hakeem Mahmud Al Hindi

Deputy Chairman of Jordan Hotel Association

He was born in Amman, 15th August 1958, he is a pilot and a flight engineer graduated from Oxford Britain 1983. He has received his primary, preparatory and secondary study in Abu Dhabi and then he has been delegated to study at the expense of the late Sheikh Zayed Al Nahyan, UAE President. He worked at UAE Government for fifteen years and then returned to the homeland and he was engaged in the Jordanian tourism sector in general and the hotels sector in particular. He has occupied many positions including director general of Jordan Hotel Association, deputy chairman of Jordan Hotel Association, managing director and director general of Jordanian Company for Hospitality and Tourism Education, member of Council of Greater Amman Municipality, member of the Youth Fund Council and member of board of director of Jordan Tourism Board and other boards.