

Osama Nicola Al Madanat

Deputy Chairman of Jordan Hotel Association

He was born in Amman, Jordan, 27th April 1951 and he acquired the Master's Degree in Civil Engineering, Contracts Management Diploma, Purchases Management Diploma and Resources Management Diploma. He worked at the Jordanian Armed Forces in rank of brigadier-general civil engineer and head of the studies departments in Royal Corps of Engineers. Mr. Osama worked as director general of factories of United Iron & Steel Manufacturing Co. until mid 2001 and then held the position of Project Management International Federation up to today's date. He is a board member of public and private joint stock companies in field of tourism, tourist transport and tourist investments, chairman of Studio Interior Design Co. and member of board of trustees of charities and social associations. He received the Order of the Star of Jordan, Jordanian Order of Independence, Order of Military Merit, Order of Leadership Efficiency and Order of the Technical and Administrative Efficiency.